

DURHAM ROWING CLUB TOUR

May 15th, 2011

SEVEN MILE ISLAND

One of the most magnificent properties in Durham Region is Seven Mile Island
Off Scugog Island.

Come row on Sunday, May 15th and witness the Cool breezes that billow across Lake Scugog. That same breeze rustle through tall pines and on through the ghostly remains of statues, gardens and the abandoned tea house.
An afternoon with a by-gone era of what
Was once and emaculate estate.

WHEN: Sunday, May 15th, 2011

WHERE: Durham Rowing Club, Port Perry

TIME: Arrive at 1000 AM to rig boats
Leave around 3:30 PM after derigging boats

BRING: Warm waterproof clothing and watershoes;

FOOD: Picnic lunch on the grounds - bring something
That can be shared
Cutlery, plates and drinks will be supplied

COST: $30.00 (for seat and incidentals)

CONTACT: Bearower@hotmail.com for registration by
May 9th, 2011